Saturday Afternoon Ceremony Unites Young Torrance Couple

St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church was the scene Saturday afternoon of the marriage of Miss Phyllis A. Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Nicholson, 22236 Reynolds dr., to Maurice E. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Wood, 22224 Reynolds dr. Flower trays decorated the altar.

The bride's gown was of lace over satin, styled with long sleeves of lace, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Stella English was the maid of honor. She wore a lavender gown and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

Joel Clark served as best man and Hugh McManus was the usher.

The bride's mother wore a sheath of silver over turquoise and the groom's mother wore a soft coral gown.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents after which the young couple left for Carmel.

The new home will be at 3542 W. 168th st., Torrance.

The bride attended North

High School and the groom is a graduate of Dorsey High. He is employed at a local service station.

Teachers Meet Weekly

Mrs. Claire (John G. L.) Crain, 3753 W. 17 1/2 st., was hostess Tuesday to a group of Carl Steele and Flavian school teachers who gather weekly for a session at bridge. They have played together for the past two years, book of Goren clutched in their hands.

Dips, punch and coffee were served, the refreshments kept simple so the group will miss little time at their game.

Attending Tuesday were Jan Cameron, Helen Carpenter, Bee Clary, Daphne Jones, Una Mae Naulty, Lurene Peele.

Visit in Connecticut

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gladgo and their two children have returned to their home in Wilmington following a three week vacation spent visiting relatives. They spent some time at Frontierland,

Marriage Vows Exchanged in Afternoon Home Ceremony

Under an arch of red and white carnations, Miss Diane Marie York of La Habra exchanged marriage vows July 19 with Larry Buffinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Buffinton, 22307 S. Figueroa, Torrance. The wedding took place at 3 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Bell, Rev. Kenneth Nelson of the Temple Baptist Church of La Habra officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A Hi-Fi record of the wedding march was played as the bride walked to the improvised altar with her father.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace, with sweetheart neckline and three quarter sleeves. She wore a seed pearl necklace. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Miss Barbara Whitnell was maid of honor. She wore a powder blue ballerina length gown of sheer nylon, styled with sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses.

Donald Buffinton served his brother as best man and Michele

Patricia, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

The mother of the bride wore a champagne colored imported Italian lace over taffeta, in ballerina length and three quarter sleeves. Beige accessories, a small champagne and beige feather hat, and diamond teardrop necklace and earrings completed her costume. She wore an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a white sheath dress trimmed with rhinestones, a white picture hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of baby pink tea roses.

A reception for 50 guests followed the wedding service. A three tiered wedding cake centered the table decorated with white carnations, white tapers and white wedding bells tied with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Donald S. Greene, a family friend, registered the guests. The couple will make their new home in Los Angeles.

Both are graduates of Banning High School in Wilmington, where they first met.

The bride is employed at Harvey Aluminum Co. in Production Control and the groom is in the X-ray office at the L.A. County Hospital.
